

Local Food Connection Proud Partner Van Meter Family Farm

ABOUT

Van Meter Family Farm is a fifth generation family farm located in Clarkson, Kentucky. Van Meter provides quality home-grown produce and starts their season with strawberries. This was initially a project for their children, to teach them about hard work and collecting the "fruit" of their labor, and it turned into the main focus of their farming operation. They also sell starts to help other small farmers with their strawberry operations.
